Basic Facts about TCID

- Reputation for Excellence— 42 years!
 - Typically 75–100 schools and between 100–200 recruiters participate every year.
 - Recruiters from Indiana and elsewhere around the U.S.
 - 300–400 candidates normally registered to attend
 - Event is for “new” teachers only: Current academic year December, May and summer graduates of teacher education programs from the College Career Center Consortium. Candidates must be from the fields of teaching, school counseling or school media.

Preparation before TCID

- Arrange to attend this all-day event.
 - Do Your Homework. Know the employers who will be attending TCID and do some research at www.cccc-in.org on them.
 - Thoroughly complete online applications, especially for your most desired schools.

Your Educator Résumé

- Polish your résumé. If you work the fair correctly, you could hand out as many as 30 résumés. Do not wait until the week of TCID to have your résumé reviewed.

Your education professors or career center representative may be able to help, but only if you contact them well in advance.

What Should I Wear?

Most candidates wear a business suit to TCID. Select your attire carefully! Wear the most professional-looking clothes you have. Make any necessary purchases. Comfortable dress shoes are a must, since it can be a long day on your feet.

Teacher Candidate Interview Day

- Students sit together, grouped by their college/university in Hall B or another room of the Conference Center.

Messages & Postings

- MESSAGE BOARDS are used to post employer messages to candidates, i.e., invitations to interview.
- Messages are like a fast pass at Disneyland. If you have an employer message, you may head to the front of the line during the Open Networking time.
- POSTING BOARDS (shown here) show school system vacancies.

Have a Strategy

Identify your target employers and find them on the table layout map.

- The Open Networking Session begins in the Expo Hall adjacent to the Conference Center. Distribute as many résumés as possible.
- Most interviews will take place in the weeks and months following TCID. Don't be discouraged if you are unable to schedule the appointments you want on this day. The value of TCID will likely become apparent after the event as a result of the contacts you make and your follow up efforts.

Where possible, recruiters are in alphabetical order.
Larger school systems may be out of sequence since they require more space.

Make a Positive First Impression

- Offer a firm handshake
- Smile!
- Introduce yourself
(Sample: "Hi. My name is John Smith, and I am graduating from Anderson University with a degree in Secondary English Education.")

Use Your Time Well!

Don't use all your networking time standing in one long line.

Employer Tables

When Open Networking Session Ends

- After the Networking session, you will be asked to return to your seat in Hall B or elsewhere in the adjacent building until your interview times.
- We ask that students who do not have a scheduled interview remain outside Exposition Hall once interviews begin.

Refreshments and Lunch

The food tables in the Expo Hall are for the recruiters.

You may eat lunch at nearby restaurants during the lunch hour.

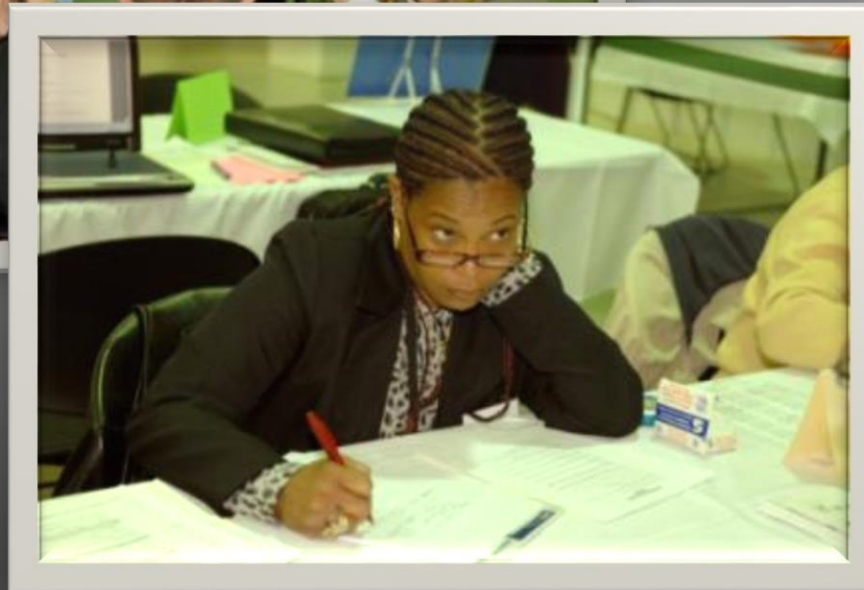

Most recruiters will take a break during the lunch hour.

- Interviews are held before and after lunch.
